Section 2. Directors

The principal officers in office upon adoption of the Bylaws shall be known as incumbent directors. The number of directors shall immediately increase to six directors and the Board of Directors may appoint directors to fill the resulting vacancies. In 2026, the terms of the newly appointed directors shall expire, and two directors shall be elected. In 2027, the number of directors shall increase to seven directors, the term of one incumbent director shall expire, and two directors shall be elected. In 2028, the number of directors shall increase to eight directors, the term of one incumbent director shall expire, and two directors shall be elected. In 2029, the terms of the remaining incumbent directors shall expire, and two directors shall be elected. Directors elected in 2026 and thereafter shall have a four-year term. All terms mentioned herein expire at the end of the annual membership meeting in the applicable year. The Board of Directors shall assign terms to the incumbent directors in accordance with this section.
